

Sibling Care Services & Agreement

Service Overview:

Sokana Collective offers dedicated sibling care services to support families during birth. Our trained doulas provide a nurturing, calm, and engaging environment for siblings, ensuring they feel safe and included during this significant family transition. We offer two options:

1. Home Birth Sibling Support: A doula will care for siblings at home during labor and birth. If desired, the doula will facilitate age-appropriate involvement, allowing siblings to witness the birth under guidance and supervision.
2. Hospital Birth Sibling Care: A doula will care for siblings at home while parents are at the hospital for labor and delivery, providing emotional and practical support to ensure their well-being.
